

Minutes of the Historic District commission meeting January 10, 2006

Called to order at 7 pm

Present

D. Boyle, T. Johnson, C. Hugo, G. Muller

Minutes of the Dec. meeting unanimously accepted

Agenda: discuss and prepare workshop for National Register of Historic Places

Jim Fisk contacted D. Boyle concerning Planning Board plans regarding Business transitional zone, will present plan to commission for comment.

What influence does the HDC have on the development for businesses in town center, parking being one of the controversies hindering business development.

HDC is to be involved in rating buildings including open spaces .

How to find info on National Historic Register for Quamphegan.

D. Boyle presents Town Workshop, to inform Town Council, and make clear to all what it means for the Town to have Buildings on the National Register.

Are there changes to any By Laws needed?

The HDC is not out to police, but to help through recommendations, in a constructive manner.

Do we want to be a Main Street community? If yes how to maintain history and have the necessary economic development.

How has traffic been a hindrance to businss, what businesses would be attracted to BT zone.

Adjournment at 8:35

